

6A School News:

In 6A this week, our student teacher, Mrs Kerr, taught us about Static Electricity. We participated in five rotations. We had to make predictions and write a hypothesis before we began. We then tested our predictions and reported our findings. Here are some photos of our experiments and fun.

