When children were born in the Gaol, they had to live there too. Children had to untangle dirty ropes from ships. Their hands would get sore and start to bleed. Milana 4B

The bottom floor is where all of the really bad criminals were kept. The top floor is where the petty offenders were kept. A petty offender is someone that stole a loaf of bread or someone that couldn't pay a bill. Isabelle 4B

At the Old Treasury Building, I learnt that women couldn't vote until 1908. Taylor 4B

J.J. Clark was the designer of the Old Treasury Building. He was 19 when it was built. Rordy 4B
